SOFIA, August 16.—It is alleged that the primary cause of the fighting at Ahlolu on August 12 was the conduct of the Greeks in trying to forcibly prevent a Bulgarian meeting there, peasants from outlying villages assembling for the meeting being received with rifle shots from the Greeks. The Bulgarians returned to their villages, procured arms and then attacked the Greeks who were forced to withdraw and barricade themselves within their church.

Fighting continued around the church the whole day. The police vainly appealed to the Greeks to cease firing while they dispersed the peasants. A Greek priest in command at the church, it is alleged, incited the Greeks to continue hostilities. Five hundred houses were destroyed by the fire started during the fighting. Altogether eleven persons perished, five of the victims being Bulgarians. The Greek bishop, who was supposed to have been incriminated, was found hiding and was arrested as being principally responsible for the outbreak.

Minister of the Interior Petkoff has gone to Ahlolu to organize relief and to stop the anti-Greek movement.

LUTHER COLLEGE CONCERT

BAND AND CHORUS

The Luther College Concert Band & Chorus set out on its concert tour from Decorah, Ia., June 29th, under the leadership of Prof. Carlo A. Sperati. At that place the college is located, which they represent, namely "Luther College." This institution of learning was founded in 1861 and is thus the oldest college of its kind among the Norwegian colleges in this country. It has both a preparatory and college department and its course complete covers a period of eight years. From the above named place the Luther College Band and Chorus set out on its tour and has traveled through Iowa, Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon, giving concerts all along the line. From Portland the band arrives at Astoria, Saturday, August 18th, and will give their concert the same evening at Foard & Stokes Hall.

Miss Emma Theoline Loe, "America's Norwegian nightingale," whose residence is in the hearts of the people who have heard her, is the soprano soloist in company with the Luther Concert Band and Chorus.

Did you ever stop to think how elevating it is to both mind and soul to listen to high class music? If so you will not miss the rare opportunity to listen to the Luther College Concert Band and Chorus next Saturday evening at Foard & Stokes Hall.

The greater part of the Kanaas wheat crop will be stored by the farmers, this year, in anticipation of a better price.

With the departure of the British steamship Comerie for Australia from Portland yesterday, there are only three British craft remaining in that harbor. They are the steamship Beckenham and the ships Galgate and Brablock. The Comerie carries a cargo of 2,800,000 feet of lumber for Port Pirie. She finished loading several days ago, but was delayed waiting for advices from home as to her destination. Of the other British vessels, the Breckenham is loading lumber for the Orient and the Brablock is loading wheat at the Oceanic dock for the United Kingdom. The Galgate is on the disengaged list.

According to advices received yesterday by Captain Gueric, of the French ship Laennec, now in Portland, ship Vanban, which called at this port last year, and which was en route from Europe to San Francisco, was wrecked by striking a reef off the Azore Islands. Captain Gueric received a letter from Captain LeDante, of the Vanban, which does not state the date of the wreck, and it is presumed to have occurred a few weeks ago. All hands were rescued and taken to Barcelona. The letter also conveyed the intelligence of the loss of the French bark Cassard, while en route from Sydney, N. S. W., to Falmouth.

The S. E. Slade Lumber Company of Portland is to inaugurate a new experiment in the shipping line, as they intend to have schooners loaded with lumber towed to San Francisco by tugs. In this manner they hope to save much time en route, as the vagaries of the wind when trusting to canvas sometimes requires from three to four weeks to make the trip down the coast, whereas the towing of the vessels to San Francisco can be accomplished within a week or 10 days.

The Harvest Queen fastened on to the four-masted schooner Prosper yesterday morning, and departed for Vancouver, where the latter vessel will load lumber for some port yet to be determined. The Prosper's crew was paid off here at the custom house, the sum of $1000 being required for the purpose.

The barkentine Jane L. Stanford was hauled to the O. R. & N. pier yesterday morning, by the Harvest Queen, and will take on the balance of her deck load of lumber. She is completely re-rigged and in fine shape for her long voyage to Sydney.

The steamer Lurline left up last evening in good season with the following people registered on her cabin list: F. E. Coulter, J. A. Dippel, F. S. Dimmit, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Rhodes, and Miss E. B. Melville.

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers that are liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by Frank Hart.

"Fritz, which do you like best, father or mother?"

The steamer Telegraph is getting to be a "right, smart" carrier between the metropolis and this city. She landed in the neighborhood of 50 people here yesterday afternoon.

The small steamer Agnes, a utility boat about the Portland harbor, sank stern-foremost yesterday, at the dock of the Peninsula Lumber Company, in that city.

The schooner Taurus, Captain Norby, arrived in yesterday afternoon, and went direct to the Clatsop mills pier where she will load lumber out for San Francisco.

The San Jose is in possession of her new foremast and was rigged yesterday. She will leave out for the bar this morning. Commissioner Pendleton departed for Portland last evening.

The steamship Francis Leggett left out over the bar yesterday at 1:20 o'clock p. m. with the great sea raft in tow and headed for San Francisco.

The Mabel Gale arrived down yesterday morning on the Harvest Queen, en route to San Francisco, with 900,000 feet of lumber, and left out at 11 o'clock.

The steamship Costa Rica came down early yesterday morning from the metropolis and left out for San Francisco at 8:15 o'clock.

The British ship Bardowie went over the bar yesterday morning on the hawsers of the "Tat," bound for the Orient.

"THE DANITES."

Large Crowd Last Night at the Star Theatre.

The production last night came up to everyone's expectations, being a most remarkably strong comedy drama, and one of those pleasing bills where there's sufficient comedy to sustain and enliven the story. Mr. Willard as Sandy shows to great advantage, as the romantic Western character suits most admirably, and the portrayal of such a different character, from Zeze Fortune of Wednesday, illustrates his wonderful versatility. The great beauty of this actor's work is naturalness in every detail. Mr. Willard has made good in every character he has assumed and as "Sandy," he is indeed strong. Mr. Morton's "Parson" was an exceedingly good piece of acting as was Mr. Blanchard, as the "Judge," with his "glorious climate of California." Our friend "Washee," the Chinaman, was handled most cleverly by Mr. Elton. Mrs. Shepard as "Nancy Williams" and "Betty Piper" has a hard part to sustain, but carried it most admirably. Miss Gerschel, as a widow, portrayed her part very creditably, as did Miss Bell. Mr. Layton's "Danite" is a very nice conception and in the scene at the bar not much is said, but there seemed a great relief throughout the audience, when the door closed without some one dying in their boots.

Stop That Cough!

When a cough, a tickling or an irritation in the throat makes you feel uncomfortable take Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Don't wait until the disease has gone beyond control. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, 354 West Fifth street, Salt Lake City, Utah, write:

"We think Ballard's Horehound Syrup the best medicine for coughs and colds. We have used it for several years; it always gives immediate relief, is very pleasant and gives perfect satisfaction." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Hart's drug store.

"Is your leading man popular with the audience?"

Actor—Not very; we have a scene where I call him a fool, and they encored it several times yesterday."

Director of Carnegie Art Institute Secures Casts and Art Objects.

NEW YORK, August, August 16.—J. W. Beatty, director of fine arts in the Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, who went abroad several months ago to purchase casts and other art objects for the institute, arrived last night from Liverpool on the White Star liner Teutonic.

Mr. Beatty arranged for the shipment of a number of important casts to adorn the hall of architecture in the institute. The most important object to be brought over is a cast of the porch of the church of St. Gilles, in Southern France. The cast, which will constitute the gateway to the Hall of Architecture, is 86 feet long and 35 feet high.

While abroad Mr. Beatty visited Rodin the sculptor. He said that Rodin, who is president of the International Society of Painters, Engravers and Sculptors, succeeding Whistler, has accepted the invitation of the institute to attend the dedication on April 10, 1907.

Mr. Beatty also visited many prominent European painters to arrange for the exhibition of their pictures at the dedication. Many have accepted invitation to be guests of the institute on that occasion.

SUSPICION OF MURDER.

Police Suspect That Husband May Have Murdered His Wife.

CHICAGO, August 16.—An investigation of the death yesterday of Mrs. Mary Tobias, 20 years old, 186 Huron street, is being made by the police who believe the case may prove to be a murder. David B. Tobias, the husband, was arrested and is being held.

Neighbors early in the day heard loud voices in the Tobias rooms. Some time after the husband left as all was quiet in the place. The rooms were entered and Mrs. Tobias was found dead with the gas turned on at a jet.

A search for Tobias was begun but he was not found until evening, when he returned to the house.

A small bottle labeled poison and containing several tablets was in one of Tobias' pockets. This led the police to decide that a post-mortem examination of the victim should be made.
